12 v.
13 CROSSROAD PETROLEUM, INC., ET
14 AL.,
15 Defendants and Counter-Claimants.

Case No.: 12cv665 JLS (JLB) Lead Case

ORDER REVOKING PRO HAC
VICE STATUS
(ECF No. 544)

16 AND RELATED CONSOLIDATED
17 ACTIONS

18 The Court held a Trial Format Setting Status Hearing on July 21, 2016, at which 19 David A. Schiller, who has represented a group of defendants/counter-claimants in this 20 action referred to as the Schiller Defendants, did not appear. At that conference, counsel
21 for plaintiff/counter-defendant BP, along with counsel for several defendants/counter-
22 claimants, notified the Court that they believed Mr. Schiller, who was previously licensed 23 to practice law by the State Bar of Texas, had been disbarred. The website for the State 24 Bar of Texas indicated—and still indicates—that Mr. Schiller was disbarred on June 20, 25 2016. Mr. Schiller appeared in person before the Court on June 29, 2016 for a hearing on 26 BP's motions for partial summary judgment, but failed to notify the Court of his 27 disbarment.

28 ///

1 Following the July 21, 2016 Trial Format Status hearing, the Court issued an Order
2 to Show Cause why the Court should not take judicial notice of Mr. Schiller's June 20,
3 2016 disbarment as indicated on the website for the State Bar of Texas. (See Order, ECF 4 No. 542.) Mr. Schiller filed a declaration on July 28, 2016, explaining that he has been in 5 bad health, with very high blood pressure and complications therefrom. (Schiller Decl.,
6 ECF No. 544.)

7 Mr. Schiller attended an evidentiary hearing for Texas State Bar proceedings on May 8 18, 2016, and participated in the presentation of a witness and identified witnesses and 9 exhibits to be presented at a later hearing. (Id. at ¶ 2.) He states under oath that he was 10 unable to attend the June 15, 2016 evidentiary hearing in those proceedings because of his 11 health condition, which led to a default judgment of disbarment. (Id. at ¶ 8.) He has filed 12 a motion for a new trial in those proceedings. (Id. at ¶ 10.) Mr. Schiller states that, given 13 the pendency of his motion, the judgment of disbarment is not final. (Id.) Mr. Schiller 14 nonetheless concedes that he may not be able to travel given his medical condition, and 15 that Ms. Lacey, who is co-counsel for the Schiller Defendants, should assume the role of 16 lead counsel. (Id. at ¶ 11.) Mr. Schiller indicates that he is willing to submit his medical 17 records for in camera review. (Id.)

18 Civil Local Rule 83.3(c)(4) provides:

19 An attorney not eligible for admission under [the Civil Local Rule pertaining 20 to attorneys licensed by the State Bar of California], but who is a member in 21 good standing of, and eligible to practice before, the bar of any United States
22 court or of the highest court of any state or of any territory or insular 23 possession of the United States, who is of good moral character, and who has 24 been retained to appear in this court, may, upon written application and in the discretion of the court, be permitted to appear and participate in a particular case.

25 The Court notes that, by Mr. Schiller's own admission, the State Bar of Texas has 26 entered judgment of disbarment against him. (Schiller Decl. ¶ 8.) Further, the Court takes 27 judicial notice of Mr. Schiller's June 20, 2016 disbarment as indicated on the website for 28 the State Bar of Texas. See attorney search function at www.texasbar.com; see also Singh

1 v. Gonzales, 231 F. App'x 648, 650 n.1 (9th Cir. 2007) (taking judicial notice of an 2 attorney's disbarment pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 201); Forsythe v. Brown, 281 F.R.D. 577, 3 582 (D. Nev. 2012) (same). Irrespective of Mr. Schiller's pending motion for a new trial
 4 in the State Bar Proceedings, Mr. Schiller is not currently "a member in good standing of,
 5 and eligible to practice before, the bar of any United States court or of the highest court of 6 any state." See CivLR 83.3(c)(4). He is therefore no longer eligible for pro hac vice status 7 in this matter.

8 Further, pro hac vice status under Civil Local Rule 83.3(c)(4) is subject to "the 9 discretion of the court." In addition to finding that Mr. Schiller is not in good standing
 10 with the State Bar of Texas, the Court exercises its discretion to revoke Mr. Schiller's pro
 11 hac vice status. Accordingly, the Clerk of the Court SHALL revoke Mr. Schiller's pro hac 12 vice status and terminate him from this case.

13 Civil Local Rule 83.3(h) authorizes the court to "order any person who practices 14 before it in violation of Civil Local Rule 83.3 to pay an appropriate penalty," which would 15 then be credited to the "court library or pro bono fund." Although the Court finds that Mr.
 16 Schiller has violated Civil Local Rule 83.3, the Court declines at this time to order Mr.
 17 Schiller to pay a penalty.

18 IT IS SO ORDERED.

19 Dated: July 29, 2016

 Hon. Janis L. Sammartino
 United States District Judge
